SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF ORANGE Civil Complex Center 751 West Santa Ana Blvd. Santa Ana, CA 92701-4512
ELECTRONIC FILING ORDER Complex Civil Litigation	Case No:

NOTICE: FULL ENFORCEMENT OF THIS ORDER SHALL BE IMPLEMENTED
EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, 2007.

The Orange County Superior Court has established a system for electronic filing (e-filing) in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure §1010.6 and California Rules of Court, Rules 2.250 et seq. All papers in this action shall be electronically filed with the Court unless the party has been specifically excused by the Court from the requirement to electronically file his or her papers.

Parties are hereby ordered to register for electronic filing by completing the Electronic Filing Registration form at: <https://efile1.occourts.org/registration/registration.pdf>. Additional electronic filing information is available at: <http://www.occourts.org/complexcivil/efilemat.pdf>.

Parties may request Electronic Filing training by calling the Clerk's Office at: (714) 568-4710 or (714) 568-4711.

All electronically filed papers shall be in Portable Document Format (PDF). All papers initially captured as a scanned image from a hard-copy format will be scanned at a resolution of between 200 and 400 dpi (dots per inch) and converted to PDF format. Documents must be clearly legible. A party seeking to electronically file papers in a format other than PDF will have his or her papers rejected for filing as defective.

Hard copies of oversized documents may be filed with the court; provided, a Notice of Filing Oversized Document is filed. An oversized document means a document that is too large to scan and be depicted on a single 8½ inch by 11-inch sheet, or documents that exceed the maximum file size of 10 megabytes. However, documents exceeding 10 megabytes may be broken down and transmitted over multiple electronic submissions.

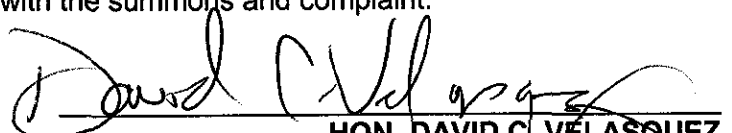

Electronic service of documents is approved for this litigation in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure §1010.6(a)(6) and California Rules of Court, Rule 2.260.

For good cause shown, a party may apply to the Court to be excused from the requirement to electronically file his or her papers. Such an application shall be in writing and may be made by ex parte motion.

Payment of any mandatory fee shall be made by major credit card (MasterCard, VISA, Discover / Novus) at the time documents are electronically submitted.

Plaintiff is hereby ordered to serve a copy of this order with the summons and complaint.

Date: February 20, 2007

HON. DAVID C. VELASQUEZ
 Supervising Judge, Complex Civil Panel
