TRANSFERRING AND FILING OF SOUTH CENTRAL PROBATE CASES

Pursuant to LASC Rule 2.0(f)(6), effective Monday, April 13, 2009, by order of Judge Aviva K. Bobb, Supervising Judge, Probate Department, no new probate cases will be accepted for filing in the South Central District.

Probate matters previously designated for filing in the South Central District must be filed in the Southeast or Central Districts. All existing probate cases, without a calendared hearing date, pending in the South Central District, will be transferred and assigned to the Southeast District.

Requests for Order to Stop Elder or Dependent Adult Abuse will continue to be handled in the South Central District.

Legal assistance for self represented litigants, including assistance with guardianship matters, will continue to be available in the Compton Courthouse.
