PRESIDING JUDGE KEVIN C. BRAZILE EXTENDS ORDER CLOSING COURTROOMS, DELAYING TRIALS AND NON-ESSENTIAL MATTERS THROUGH JUNE 10

Nation's Largest Trial Court to Launch 'Here For You | Safe For You' Plan to Open
Virtual and Physical Courthouse Doors Starting June 15 with the Clerk's Office

Presiding Judge Kevin C. Brazile announced today he has extended his April 14 Order pursuant to the emergency powers granted to him by Chief Justice Tani G. Cantil-Sakauye under Government Code 68115. Under today's Order, all courtrooms will remain closed for judicial business through June 10 — except time-sensitive, essential functions. To prepare for the resumption of court hearings beginning June 22, the Clerk's Office will reopen on June 15.

"This extension is necessary to continue social distancing in our courthouses as we balance public health and safety and prepare to reopen the virtual and physical doors of the nation's largest trial court with a broad array of safeguards and services under the Court's new 'Here For You | Safe For You' plan," Presiding Judge Brazile said. "Whether you are an attorney or party appearing from a remote location or seeking assisting from a courthouse, the Court will fulfill its access to justice mandate while prioritizing safe, accessible and efficient service delivery for the public, judicial officers and employees."

Order Extension 2-2-2-2

Under the Order, these matters scheduled between May 13-June 10, 2020, will be continued or reset:

- Criminal jury trials and non-jury trials;
- Civil jury and non-jury trials;
- Processing of all Unlawful Detainer cases;
- Family Law trials and evidentiary hearings, excluding Restraining Order and international kidnapping proceedings;
- Traffic and Non-Traffic Infraction trials; and
- Dependency and Delinquency arraignment/detention hearings.

In response to the COVID-19 public health crisis, Presiding Judge Brazile exercised his authority to scale down operations on March 17 under the powers conveyed to him by the Chief Justice on March 16, 2020. The initial Order led to the closure of 400 out of 580 courtrooms throughout the Court's 38 courthouses. Those courtrooms will remain closed through June 10, with hearings resuming on June 22.

Access to all Los Angeles County courthouses remains restricted to Judges, Commissioners, court staff, co-lessees, Judicial Council staff and vendors, and authorized persons, which includes but is not limited to news reporters and news media representatives.

To prepare for the June 22 reopening of the closed 400 courtrooms and resumption of hearings and court operations, the Clerk's Office — which has been closed since March 23 — will reopen on June 15. Court employees are preparing calendars and implementing new ways to virtually deliver services. Information regarding the new Virtual Clerk's Office and Court Service Departments including virtual Jury Service, telephonic and video Webex assistance, and how to reserve a seat in the courthouse for in-person assistance, will be coming soon.

In addition to the new virtual services coming soon, under the new Here For You | Safe For You plan, the Court:

Order Extension

3-3-3-3

- Requires the use of face coverings by all judicial officers, employees and all Court visitors, with limited permissible exceptions;
- Manages social distancing with signs, floor, wall and seating markings inside and outside courthouses;
- Works with Sheriff's Deputies to help manage social distancing requirements;
- Offers hand sanitizer and wipes at entrances, inside courtrooms and other high traffic areas; and
- Provides enhanced disinfection and cleaning of courthouse facilities, including disinfectant cleaning of many areas twice daily in areas such as courtrooms, Clerk's Office, and all high- traffic areas, such as hand rails, door handles and knobs, elevator areas and buttons, and escalators. Public restrooms also are disinfected twice daily, and sometimes more frequently, if needed.

The Here For You | Safe For You plan focuses on providing a safe courthouse environment while offering services that allow court business to be conducted remotely. Whether appearing by phone, from home, the office or coming to the courthouse, the Here For You | Safe For You plan provides safe, efficient options to access justice. The Court's remote technology options promote social distancing by reducing the number of people appearing in person. Updates on COVID-19 impacts to court operations are available on the Court's website (www.lacourt.org) and Twitter page (@LASuperiorCourt).

Superior Court of California
County of Los Angeles

MAY 13 2020

Sherri R. Carter, Executive Officer/Clerk
By Rizalinda Mina, Deputy

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER OF THE
PRESIDING JUDGE RE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

GENERAL ORDER

The World Health Organization, the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and the State of California have recognized that the world, country, and state face a life-threatening pandemic caused by the COVID-19 virus.

In response to the spread of COVID-19, Governor Gavin Newsom on March 4, 2020, declared a state of emergency in California, which was followed on March 13, 2020, by President Donald J. Trump declaring a national emergency. Beginning on March 16, 2020, California counties, including Los Angeles, began issuing shelter-in-place or stay-at-home orders. On March 19, 2020, Governor Newsom issued Executive Order N-33-20, requiring all Californians to stay home, subject to certain limited exemptions. Courts are included in this exemption.

Public Health agencies, including the CDC, the California Department of Public Health, and local county health departments have recommended increasingly stringent social distancing measures of at least six feet between people, and encouraged vulnerable individuals to avoid public gatherings and spaces. The continuous operation of our courts is essential for our constitutional form of government, for providing due process and protecting the public. However, courts are clearly places with high risks during this pandemic because they require gatherings of judicial officers, court staff,

1 litigants, attorneys, witnesses, defendants, law enforcement, and juries—well in excess of the numbers
2 allowed for gathering under current executive and health orders.

3
4 In response, on March 20, 2020, the Chief Justice of California, the Honorable Tani Cantil-
5 Sakaue, issued an advisory recommending steps superior courts could take to mitigate the effect of
6 reduced staffing and court closures and to protect the health of judges, court staff, and court users. On
7 March 23, 2020, the Chief Justice also issued an order requiring superior courts to suspend jury trials
8 for 60 days, unless they were able to conduct such a trial at an earlier date, upon a finding of good
9 cause shown or through the use of remote technology. That order also extended holding last day trials
10 in criminal and civil proceedings; and authorized courts to adopt any proposed local rules or rule
11 amendment intended to address the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic to take effect immediately,
12 without advance circulation for public comment.

13
14 On March 27, 2020, Governor Newsom issued Executive Order N-38-20, which among other
15 things, suspends Government Code section 68115 and any other provision of law to the extent that
16 those laws impose or imply a limitation on the Chief Justice's authority to authorize, via emergency
17 order or statewide rule, any court to take any action that is necessary to maintain the safe and orderly
18 operation of the courts. On March 28, 2020, the Judicial Council met in an emergency session and 19 unanimously authorized and supported the Chief Justice issuing statewide emergency orders to extend 20 statutory deadlines for preliminary hearings, arraignments, and last day trials in both criminal and civil 21 proceedings.

23 On March 30, 2020, the Chief Justice issued an order that, inter alia, (a) extended the time
24 period provided in section 859b of the Penal Code for the holding of a preliminary examination and
25 the defendant's right to release from 10 court days to not more than 30 court days; (b) extended the
26 time period provided in section 825 of the Penal Code within which a defendant charged with a felony
27 offense must be taken before a magistrate from 48 hours to not more than seven days; (c) extended the 28 time period provided in section 1382 of the Penal Code for the holding of a criminal trial by no more

1 than 60 days from the last date on which the statutory deadline otherwise would have expired; and (d)
2 extended the time periods provided in sections 583.310 and 583.320 of the Code of Civil Procedure to
3 bring an action to trial by no more than 60 days from the last date on which the statutory deadline
4 otherwise would have expired. These time extensions are in addition to any relief provided pursuant
5 to a court-specific emergency order issued under a subdivision of Government Code section 68115
6 related to another time extension or form of relief.

7
8 On April 6, 2020, the Judicial Council adopted eleven emergency rules of court that addressed
9 the suspension of certain civil proceedings, the use of technology in court proceedings and operations,
10 the conduct of criminal proceedings, the conduct of juvenile dependency and delinquency
11 proceedings, the issuance of emergency protective orders, and the conduct of civil proceedings and
12 discovery. Since adopting those emergency rules, the council has adopted, inter alia, additional rules
13 on service of papers, and the effective date for modification of support orders, and has amended
14 emergency rule 8.

16 On April 29, 2020, the Chief Justice issued a statewide order extending by an additional 30
17 days the 60-day continuance of criminal jury trials and the 60-day extension of time in which to 18 conduct a criminal trial under Penal Code Section 1382.

19
20 In addition, upon the renewed request of Presiding Judge Kevin C. Brazile, the Chief Justice
21 determined that the conditions described in Government Code section 68115(a) continue to exist, and
22 authorized the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, to undertake a number of actions.

24 In light of these actions and orders, and as supplemented by the specific authority granted to 25 the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, by the Chief Justice pursuant to the 26 provisions of 68115 of the Government Code,
